Overview

Matthew A. Bourque serves as Managing Partner of RMO LLP's Dallas and Houston offices. A thoughtful, diligent litigator, Matthew focuses his practice on representing heirs, beneficiaries, fiduciaries, creditors, and other interested parties in contested probate, trust, guardianship, and financial elder abuse cases. As supported by his accomplished track record, Matthew is able to calmly and expertly navigate the most tumultuous situations with relative ease while securing results for his clients that allow them to move past their dispute and on with their lives.

Matthew primarily handles probate litigation matters including will contests, fiduciary litigation to recover misfunded, misappropriated or misappropriated estate and trust funds, community property claims, executor and trustee removal proceedings, compelled distribution of estate and trust assets, trust accounting lawsuits, competing applications for guardianship, and establishment of common-law marriage and adoption-by-estoppel. Matthew also has significant experience handling commercial litigation incidental to probate matters.

Matthew received his juris doctor from Boston University School of Law, with a concentration in litigation and dispute resolution. He graduated magna cum laude from The George Washington University where he majored in Political Science with a minor in Spanish.

Representative Matters

- Helped clients whose stepmother procured an invalid will from their dementia-stricken father, prevailing at trial and securing findings of bad faith, which prevented stepmother from recovering her attorney's fees from the estate.
- Removed executor who stole several hundred thousand dollars in estate funds, preserving the remainder of the estate for national charity organization clients.
- Defended elderly client against guardianship proceedings masterminded by her greedy son-in-law who attempted to take control of her multi-million-dollar estate. Proved that son-in-law acted in bad faith and forced him to pay fees and costs.
- Defended trustee against false accusations of mismanagement and theft initiated by her son's ex-wife; secured settlement that fully exonerated client.
- Obtained summary judgment proving common law marriage when client's common-law husband died in a trucking accident, which allowed client to pursue wrongful death claims worth millions.
- Negotiated family settlement agreement while navigating complex family dynamics to avoid a contentious and costly trust modification proceeding.
- Obtained emergency guardianship order for client whose rogue brother planned to kidnap their mentally incapacitated father and move him to an unsafe environment.
- Secured injunctive relief requiring the return of $2,000,000 in unlawfully distributed estate funds held by the business partner of client's deceased mother.
- Protected client's six-figure inheritance from her beloved grandmother by defending grandmother's will against client's spiteful aunts and uncles.
- Secured highly favorable settlement over the estate of client's sister after sister's new neighbor, a non-English speaker and supposed "best friend" produced a suspicious handwritten will written in broken English.
- Won a judgment to invalidate a ladybird deed, impose a permanent injunction, award attorney's fees, and establish a widower's right to own and possess his homestead after his own son had removed him from his home based on the illegally procured deed.
- Engineered a take-nothing settlement defeating claim of co-tenant for improvements and repairs of inherited property.
