Overview

Brian Puglise is an attorney in the San Diego office of RMO LLP. A thoughtful and results-driven litigator, Brian focuses his practice on representing heirs, beneficiaries, fiduciaries, creditors, and other interested parties in contested probate, trust, conservatorship, and financial elder abuse cases.

Previously, Brian represented clients in workers' compensation matters, handling contested hearings, depositions, and settlement negotiations. This experience built a strong foundation in litigation strategy, evidentiary analysis, and client advocacy that he now applies in navigating his clients with a compassionate and strategic approach through probate and trust disputes.
