Overview

Kyndsey D. Jones is an attorney in the Dallas office of RMO LLP. She brings a results-driven and client-focused approach to her practice, representing heirs, beneficiaries, fiduciaries, creditors, and other interested parties in litigated probate, contested guardianship, and financial elder abuse matters. Kyndsey is dedicated to guiding clients through complex and often sensitive disputes with both strategic precision and thoughtful advocacy.

Prior to joining RMO, Kyndsey developed a strong litigation foundation through her work in insurance defense, where she gained extensive experience handling complex disputes and navigating high-stakes matters. She later sought to apply that litigation skillset in a more personally meaningful context, leading her to focus on trust and estate litigation, where she can work more closely with clients and make a direct impact during pivotal moments in their lives.
